Circular No.: 58 /2020

Date : 08th May, 2020

SUB.:- “Plastic Tide Turners Challenge Badge (PTTC) Programme” process and reporting.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Bharat Scouts and guides have accepted to work on the “Plastic Tide Turners Challenge Badge Programme (PTTC)” along with WAGGGS which is the need of present day.

The activity is all about the Plastic Pollution which is threatening the life in water as well as on land. PTTC is a activity provided global to fight plastic pollution around the World. It is designed to improve young adults to reflect upon their plastic consumption, discover solutions to reduce this consumption and lead change in their Homes, Communities, Institutions and Offices.

By joining the challenge, you will be a part of an entire generation of young leaders who are changing the World, “One Action at a time”.

To earn this badge, they will be going through three levels i.e.:

Entry level, Leader level, Champion level.

i) Online process: Candidates can register at <https://www.tide-turners.org> and complete the various levels, send the members ID to their concerned State Headquarters along with photos and short videos if any.

ii) Offline process: They can submit a short report and photos of activities conducted to their concerned State Headquarters.

Unit leaders/ district association may send their report to state Association as and when the activity is conducted in Annexure A.

Further State Headquarters will submit the same to the concerned Regional Headquarters in Annexure B, Regional Headquarters will compile in Annexure C and forward it to the National Headquarters by 10th of every month.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

(RAJ KUMAR KAUSHIK)
DIRECTOR
