To
All the State Secretaries,
State Associations of
The Bharat Scouts and Guides,
INDIAN UNION.

SUB: FOR PURCHASING MATERIALS FROM NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS REGARDING.

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that the name of "The Bharat Scouts and Guides "with the Emblem is protected and this should not be used for professional or commercial purposes (Copy of the NHQ Circular No.68/87, dated 07th October, 1987 is enclosed herewith) by any other agency.

It has been found from our record, that from the last few years many states have not purchased any of the Scouts and Guides Uniform materials from the National Headquarters such as Belts, Beret Caps, Cap Badge, Scarves, Woggle Badges, etc. which are the basic minimum. As National Headquarters is the only authentic and authorised supply chain office for the country, we would request you to kindly purchase materials only from National Headquarters, which will help the Scouts/Guides to get genuine materials at reasonable price. We do hope that we should be able to get your state support.

The Bharat scouts & Guides, NHQ has full confidence that all State Associations will be the custodian of the BSG EMBLEM in India in all forms and would not allow or encourage any other agency in this behalf. We are in the process to get "TRADE MARK" by application no.3054019 dated 12/09/2015. You are requested to send your valuable demand for materials to National Headquarters. Your demand will be supplied at the earliest possible time as we have made adequate arrangements.

Thanking you,

Yours in Scouting,

(M. A. KHALID)

Delhi man jailed for having fake notes
NEW DELHI, March 22: Vijay Kumar, a New Delhi man has been convicted by Mr. Q. P. Singla, Additional Sessions Judge, and sentenced to three years imprisonment and fined Rs. 3,000 or in default rigorous imprisonment for six months.

Vijay Kumar was arrested while in possession of 88 forged Pakistan currency notes of the denomination of Rs. 10 each—PTI.

Conviction quashed
NEW DELHI, March 22: The Supreme Court today held that if a member of an unlawful assembly comes to be the victim of a killing in a similar assembly before the commission of an offence, no "vicious" liability can be imposed upon him under Section 149 of the Indian Penal Code because of any subsequent criminal act committed by other members of the unlawful assembly.

Allowing an appeal by Nawab Ali and acquitting him of the charge of murdering a young woman in company with others, including his two sons, and forming an unlawful assembly at Gulapwara village in June, 1973, the court held that conviction of the petitioner who had been the scene of the incident before the crime was committed in youth or was not well-founded.

The lower court had convicted him and sentenced all seven accused -life imprisonment and murder charges and lesser sentences for other offences. Their appeals were later dismissed by the High Court. Only the petitioner came up for appeal to the Supreme Court against his conviction—PTI.

CENTRE FOR STUDIES IN YOUTH WORK

"The Times of India" News Serv
NEW DELHI, March 22: Representatives of Commonwealth youth programme in the Asia-Pacific region have arrived here today, accepted an olive offer of facilities for a centre to be located in Chandigarh. The centre, to be located in Chandigarh, is one of the three centres under the Commonwealth youth programme. The other two are to be set up in Gaya in the Bihar region and in Zanzibar in Africa.

Commonwealth representatives to Asia, Australia and Pacific have discussed the concept and design of the centre and broadly agreed on its level and content of courses to be offered there.

Earlier in the week, delegates of the current planning meeting inspected the site for the centre in Chandigarh which is expected to enrol initial training in about 40 students from different parts of the region.

The delegates at today's session which was presided over by Mr. Fakhruddin G. Ahmad, Joint Secretary in the Ministry of Education and Social Welfare, discussed the building of the government of India for its offer.

The Commonwealth Assistant Secretary for Commonwealth relations hopes that the youth programme financed by voluntary contribution would have an impact on the region. He noted that the countries of the region had created an institution of their own, unborrowed by imperial concepts, and flexible enough to accommodate the diverse needs of the region.

Besides officials of India, representatives of Australia, Bangladesh, Malaysia, New Zealand, Pakistan and Western Samoa attended the meeting. Resource personnel and consultants from other parts of the Commonwealth were among the other participants.

The Commonwealth secretariat, in concert with the University of Manchester, is also organizing a week-long seminar on adult education and national development here.

The seminar, which begins tomorrow, will discuss among other things, the problem of adult mobilisation and the contribution of adult education in areas like agricultural improvement and family planning. PROTOCOL CONFERENCE
