Dated : 30th July, 2018

SUB.: APR DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION CHALLENGE.

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that the Asia-Pacific Support Centre of the World Organization of the Scout Movement is pleased to announce the open call for application for the #ScoutingForAll: The APR Diversity and Inclusion Challenge.

This challenge is part of our initiative to promote Diversity and Inclusion in the Asia-Pacific Region, funded through the Messengers of Peace Support Fund, targeting Scouts and young adults in Scouting who are involved in significant projects that are making a great impact in their communities. This initiative reinforces Scouting as a movement that values diversity and is inclusive and open to all.

We are requesting State Associations to promote the challenge to their Scouts or Scout groups and contribute to the region's promising practices on Diversity and Inclusion. Projects selected through a screening process will receive funding amounting to USD3,000.00 per project in Asia-Pacific Region.

The announcement of winners and awarding will be done during the 26th Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference scheduled on 15-20 October 2018 at the Philippine International Convention Centre.

For more details, kindly refer to the attached guideline and application form. All applications should be received at the National Headquarters, New Delhi not later than 31st August, 2018. Selected applications will be forwarded to APR/WOSM.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,
