Estate, New Delhi-110002 on 09th July, 2017 at 12.00 Noon under the chairmanship of Dr. Anil Kumar Jain, President of the Bharat Scouts and Guides.

Following members were present in the meeting at Annexure-I.

The Meeting started with Scout/ Guide prayer. Shri Krishnaswamy R., Officiating Director, Bharat Scouts & Guides welcomed Hon'ble President and members present in the meeting.

Hon'ble President Dr. Anil Kumar Jain was welcomed by all Vice-Presidents and by Shri B. I. Nagarale, IAS(Retd.), Former Chief National Commissioner by presenting flower bouquets.

In his opening remarks Hon'ble President extended hearty welcome to the members and greeted them on the occasion of Guru Purnima. He informed the house about the circumstances which led to calling off this Special National Council Meeting and requested members of the National Council to participate in the deliberations open heartedly and to support the cause of the Organisation. He also explained the consultation process he held with senior leaders of Scouting and Guiding in the Country including all Vice-Presidents and the outgoing Chief National Commissioner Shri B. I. Nagarale. He said that the Respect for every individual and their work will always be remembered in the history of the Organisation.

Hon'ble President congratulated Shri P. G. R. Sindhia, State Chief Commissioner of Karnataka and his team for successful conduct of the 17th National Jamboree held at Mysore, Karnataka under the leadership of Shri B. I. Nagarale, IAS(Retd.), the then Chief National Commissioner in leading the National Jamboree. He also thanked all the State Associations who extended their support by participating in the Jamboree. Thereafter he called the house to deliberate on the Agenda items.

He informing the house regarding Apologies received and Obituary References.

He requested the august house for one minute silence prayer for eminent Scout/Guide Leaders who has gone home.

After that he brought the Council in to order as per the Agenda items.

Agenda Item No.1: Confirmation of the Minutes of the last National Council Meeting held on 27th November, 2016 and

Agenda Item No. 2:- Business Arising (Action Taken Report)

The Agenda Item No.1 & 2 was deferred as it was a Special National Council Meeting to deliberate on specific resolutions. The members present supported the same and requested the Secretary of the National Council to call for any missing points to be included in the Minutes as observations from Dr. S. Kumar and some other members brought some anomalies or missing in the recording of the proceedings.

Agenda Item No. 3:- Amendments/additions/deletions in Rules, Memorandum of Association, Bye-Laws of the Bharat Scouts & Guides.

The resolutions were then taken up for discussion.
The State Chief Commissioner of Goa raised a point of order informing that the National Council should not take up any resolutions if it is not routed through Rules Committee and National Executive Committee. Clarifying the same Hon'ble President directed that the National Council is the supreme body of the Association and who can make policy decision of its own by discussing the same in the house. Thereafter, Shri B. I. Nagarale, the outgoing Chief National Commissioner proposed the first additions to the Rules of the Bharat Scouts & Guides as given below.

RESOLUTION-I

1. Powers and functions of the President

(a) the President may take suo-mottu cognizance of any decision taken by any authority, office bearer and official of Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Association, its committees or bodies or affiliated associations and may pass interim orders as deem fit. President may suspend, modify, alter or annul such decisions on the recommendations of President-in-Council.

(b) the President may issue any directions in the interest of the organization to any authority, office bearer and official of Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Association, its committees or bodies or affiliated associations and such directions shall be binding. Generally such directions shall be on the recommendations of the President-in-Council.

(c) any person aggrieved by an order made by the Chief National Commissioner, Bharat Scouts and Guides, within thirty days from the date on which the order is communicated to him, prefer an appeal to the President, Bharat Scouts and Guides.

Provided that the President may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

The President may refer the appeal to the President-in-Council if considered necessary and on the recommendations of the President-in-Council, may decide the appeal.

(d) in case of emergent situations, the President may take appropriate decision and or steps as deem fit including appointment of Administrator/Board of Administrator on arising vacancy in the office of Chief National Commissioner.
all appointments in the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Headquarters and its branches or offices shall be made after prior approval of the President.

all Warrants of Appointments shall be issued in consultation with the President -in-Council.

The above Resolution was seconded by Smt. Geetha Nataraj, State Commissioner(G) of Karnataka State Bharat Scouts & Guides. Thereon Shri Dinkar Burathoki, State Chief Commissioner of Himachal Pradesh State Bharat Scouts & Guides raised whether this will become operational in the State too. It was informed that addition is being made in the Rules at the National level. Therefore this is not applicable to the State Association as of now. Smt. Anamika Das, SOC(G) of Odisha State Bharat Scouts & Guides raised a point of order that the powers of Chief National Commissioner is defined under the Rule No. 14(4), therefore necessary amendments to this Rules should also be made.

The President informed the house that there is no conflict of interest in formation of the President-in-Council and the powers of the Chief National Commissioner. Therefore this is not a subject for discussion. He also informed that the powers and dignity of the Chief National Commissioner will remain with its due diligence. This has only been initiated to provide a platform for “Appeal” against the orders of Chief National Commissioner to the aggrieved party within the Organisation by preferring an “Appeal” before the President of the Association and thereby protecting the interest of the Association and avoiding litigations. The house agreed with the President and accepted that the Association should stand united so that litigations can be avoided. The President called for vote on the Resolutions by raising the hands and all members present agreed to the Resolutions. Shri P. R. Nadkarni, State Chief Commissioner of Goa wanted to record decent note to which the President agreed. However Shri Nadkarni clarified with his intention is that it should be incorporated in the Rules.

The Resolution No.2 for creating a President-in-Council was moved by Shri B. I. Nagarale again as below.
2. President-in-Council

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Rules of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Association, there shall be a President in council with following details.

(a) Functions of the President-in-Council - There shall be a President-in-Council to aid and advise the President in respect of matters referred to it and to make recommendations in the interest of the organization. The President-in-Council shall be an apex advisory body of Bharat Scouts and Guides.

(b) Composition of the President-in-Council –

The President-in-Council shall consist of following:-

(i) all six elected Vice Presidents of Bharat Scouts and Guides.
(ii) preceding/outgoing Chief National Commissioner.
(iii) two Scouts/Guides leaders of repute and standing to be nominated by the President.
(iv) one person having knowledge and experience in the field of finance, accounts, audit and fund management.
(v) Convenor of the President-in-Council - The President shall nominate Convenor of the President-in-Council, who shall also be member of the President-in-Council

(c) Meeting of the President-in-Council - The meeting of the President-in-Council may be held once in a quarter and special meetings may be convened at any time as directed by the President of Bharat Scouts and Guides. The quorum of meeting of the President-in-Council shall be five members.

(d) Procedure of meetings of the President-in-Council – The President-in-Council shall regulate its own procedure. Convenor shall summon the meetings of the President-in-Council in consultation with the President.

(e) Secretary of the President-in-Council – There shall be a Secretary of the President-in-Council to be appointed by President-in-Council on the terms and conditions as decided.

(f) Executive Advisor - The President may appoint any member of the President-in-Council as Executive Advisor. He may be assigned any independent work by the President.
(g) Vacancy in President-in-Council not to invalidate acts or proceedings - No act or proceeding of the President-in-Council shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in or any defect in the constitution of the President-in-Council.

The same was seconded by Smt. Kempi Pakam, ASTC(G) of Arunachal Pradesh, Shri N. A. Khan, State Chief Commissioner of Jammu & Kashmir, Shri Ranjit Kumar Das of Assam, Shri K. B. Shanmukhappa, Vice-President of Karnataka.

Shri Ranjit Das of Assam wanted that "One Man One Post" may also be brought out at this juncture. Smt. A. Swer, State Secretary of Meghalaya supported the move to have a President-in-Council informing that this will help to safeguard the interest of the Association. Shri Santosh Kumar Dixit of Uttar Pradesh appealed to the house that the National Council which is the supreme body by taking a decision has made a historic decision to have check and balance in the functioning of the Association. Shri Prakash Disoriya, Representative of Madhya Pradesh, Shri Srinivas Kumar, Representative of Bihar, Shri Gary James, Representative of Meghalaya also wanted to have these Rules be implemented at National/State/District and local level. Replying to this it was clarified that the current Resolution should only be implemented at the National level and this was agreed too. The President called for voting by raising hands. The house supported the Resolutions unanimously.

The third Resolution was moved by Shri P. G. R. Sindhia, State Chief Commissioner of Karnataka. While presenting the Resolution Shri Sindhia expressed his faith in the system of collective wisdom and each one being consulted in arriving at a consensus decision. He appraised the house how Dr. Jain, our President supported the preparations of 17th National Jamboree and the working system of the Volunteers who were part of the Jamboree team Shri K. B. Shanmukhappa, Shri Mohan Kondaji, Shri P. Vishwanath and many more people who worked day in and out in making the Jamboree a grand success. He expressed the support of Shri B. I. Nagarale extended to the State in his capacity the then Chief National Commissioner. Then he moved the Resolution as below.
RESOLUTION- 3

3. Appointment of the Chief National Commissioner, Bharat Scouts and Guides in special circumstances -

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Rules of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Association, special procedure for appointment of the Chief National Commissioner shall be adopted in case of vacancy arising out on account of death, retirement, removal, resignation or otherwise. The matter regarding appointment of the Chief National Commissioner for the remaining term shall be considered by the President-in-Council and in case there is unanimity on the candidature of one eligible person, then such person shall be the Chief National Commissioner for the remaining term agreed upon by all the members present in the meeting of the President-in-Council through consensus and also approved by the President.

(b) The appointment of the Chief National Commissioner for the remaining term shall be confirmed by the National Council. After confirmation of the nomination by National Council, the Chief National Commissioner shall be deemed as elected for the remaining term.

(c) In case of no unanimity or no agreement or consensus on the name of one person to be nominated as the Chief National Commissioner for the remaining term, the normal election procedure shall be followed.

The above Resolutions was seconded by Shri G. Parameswar of Telangana, Shri Ranjit Kumar Das of Assam, Shri K. B. Shanmukhappa of Karnataka, Shri Onkar Singh of Punjab, Shri Gary James of Meghalaya and Smt. Vimla Meghwal, Vice-President of Rajasthan State Bharat Scouts & Guides. The house agreed with this Resolution by raising their hands in unanimity.

The Resolution No.4 as below was proposed by Shri Satya Narayana Sharma of Chhattisgarh and was seconded by Shri G. Parameswar of Telangana. Shri Srinivas Kumar of Bihar wanted to make an amendment to the Resolutions by proposing that to avoid conflict in later stages which may be mentioned as the above Nominees should not have attained the age of 65 years on the date of nomination. This was seconded by Shri R. S. Hanspal of Uttar Pradesh State.

RESOLUTION- 4

4. Age bar to hold office of the President, the Chief National Commissioner and the Treasurer of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Association—

The President, the Chief National Commissioner and the Treasurer of the Bharat Scouts and Guides National Association on attaining the age of 70 years shall cease to hold respective office at national level only.

The President informed the house that such things can be included in the Bye-Laws of the Association governing the election. The President adjourned the house for lunch with a notice for a Special Session to be convened at 3.00 P. M. on the same day at the same venue. Members dispersed for lunch.

The house re-assembled at 3.00 P. M. At the Opening of the meeting Smt. Kempi Pakam of Arunachal Pradesh wanted to raise some administrative matter which was objected by Shri P. G. R. Sindhia, State Chief Commissioner of Karnataka and the President supported the views of Shri P. G. R. Sindhia and informed the house that this will be taken up by the appropriate Authority.

Here the President informed the house that the President-in-Council met and the members present in writing recommended that Dr. K. K. Khandelwal may be nominated as the next Chief National Commissioner for the approval of the National Council. On hearing and announced by the President the house welcomed with applause.

The Hon’ble President thanked the house for unanimously accepting the recommendations of the President-in-Council and conforming it as Dr. K. K. Nagarale, IAS, the then Chief National Commissioner addressed the house and requested everyone to extend the support to Dr. K. K. Khandelwal in taking forward the mission of the Movement.

The President requested Dr. K. K. Khandelwal, IAS, Chief National Commissioner to address the house. Dr. K. K. Khandelwal expressed his gratitude to the house and especially to Dr. Anil Kumar Jain, President for reposing faith in him to lead the Organisation. He expressed his gratefulness to Shri B. I. Nagarale, the outgoing Chief National Commissioner and assured that his services will be utilised by the National Association with due regards. He spoke at length about his vision in carrying forward the mission of the Movement by taking all the State Associations together as a team under the able leadership of Dr. Anil Kumar Jain, our dynamic and visionary President who believe in collective wisdom, shared responsibility, mutual respect and an environment of good faith, peace and brotherhood.

The President in his closing remarks addressed the members to stand united for the cause of the youths forget and forgive any mistakes done by anyone and play a constructive role in making the Bharat Scouts & Guides the World Leader in Scouting and Guiding. He also expressed his consultation with the leaders of the Government and his shared views for the growth of the Movement by cutting across party lines of any political nature and thanked everyone for their cooperation consensus and concerned in smooth conduct of the Special National Council.

Agenda Item No.4:- Any other matter with the permission of the Chair.

The Hon’ble President addressed the large gathering of the National Council members of the Bharat Scouts & Guides assembled at the National Headquarters and thanked them for their active participation and good suggestions. He congratulated all the members and told that the Bharat Scouts & Guides has been performing the unique task of developing the personality of youths in the services of the National building. It is the biggest movement spreading the message of peace and universal brotherhood.
Vote of thanks was expressed to the Hon’ble President and the members of the house on behalf of the National Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts & Guides.
